

Ruminant Sales Representative

Competitive Salary

40 hours per week

Lloyds Animal Feeds are a family owned business with bases across the UK, who work with customers to produce a nutritional solution that provides efficient production for Dairy, Beef, Sheep and Poultry.

An opportunity has arisen for a Ruminant Sales Representative covering our North Wales area.

The successful candidate will work with the Ruminant Sales team selling and supporting customers for both ruminant and monogastric customers.

The successful candidate will have experience and understanding of working within the agricultural industry and within a sales environment. They will also have up to date knowledge of the agricultural sector, working knowledge of Microsoft Office, and be able to handle sensitive and confidential information.

The successful candidate will have strong inter-personal skills including the ability to develop effective working relationships, be able to work on their own initiative and in a team, be organised with a can do attitude, prioritise and organise work to meet deadlines, have excellent attention to detail, communication and interpersonal skills, have strong Microsoft skills and be able to demonstrate a professional approach at all times. They will be able to work under pressure, be able to adapt to situations as they occur and be able to successfully resolve issues in a timely manner.

For an informal discussion about the role or an application form please contact Katie Stocker, HR Manager on 01691 830741 or send your CV and covering letter to recruitment@lloydsanimalfeeds.com.
